Other / Notes:

Please Note The Following Rules:

Staging begins 10:30am - Parade begins promptly at 12:00pm

- Staging occurs in a residential neighborhood; please keep noise and music to a minimum. Be respectful of the neighborhood and the other participants is appreciated.
- Only vehicles that are part of the parade entry may park in the staging area. Parade volunteers may also park in the staging area.
- Please carry or attach an identification banner or signage if possible.
- ALL ANIMAL entries MUST provide their own pooper scooper team or wear a bag during the entire parade route. The clean up team must follow directly after the animal - not the end of the procession
- $25.00 charge for any Political Floats to participate in parade. Please include check payable to the Grand Lake Area Chamber of Commerce. Please contact the Chamber for Credit Card Charges.
- Parade Route is east on Grand Ave. from Haskel St. to Hancock Street to the north.
- Please provide a copy of these guidelines to all participants.
- To provide a fantastic experience to spectators you are required to KEEP MOVING AT ALL TIMES. No stopping is allowed. It is not necessary for walkers to remain with the float. The Parade Committee encourages walkers to continue on to keep the flow of the parade moving.
- Due to numerous safety factors for both participants and spectators of the parade, throwing of any projectiles, are not allowed on the parade route. Firecrackers, poppers or similar devices are not permitted. Violation of this policy will result in your group being removed from the parade and barred from future participation.
- For safety reasons, candy, flyers and goodies may not be thrown to the spectators. (Injuries have occurred resulting in this statewide law) - Items may be HANDED out by marchers walking next to the crowd (but please do not throw them)

THERE ARE NO WATER PROJECTILES OR WATER ZONE AT THIS PARADE. GL FIRE IS HOSTING A FREE WATER ZONE AFTER THE PARADE AT LAKEFRONT PARK
